Traditions At The Glen Golf Course

Traditions at the Glen offers a championship Johnson City golf course with an array of excellent golf holes. This classic-style golf course is set on rolling hills overlooking the Susquehanna Valley in the Southern Tier of New York. Enjoy the wide-open, wooded fairways that grace this mature course and the meticulously groomed putting greens. For a unique and challenging game surrounded by beautiful scenery in Johnson City, NY, golf at Traditions Resort is for you!

While the front nine is slightly longer than the back, the stretch of holes along The Glen is truly scenic gems. The seventh hole, a 591-yard par 5 that drops steeply from tee to green, offers splendid views of the Susquehanna Valley. The wooded Glen comes into play on the Par 4, third hole and Par 3, sixth hole — both requiring accurate drives and approach shots — unless you plan on spending more time in the woods than anticipated.

As of October 2008 our USGA/NYSGA Course and Slope Rating was updated as follows:

- Blue Tee (Rating - 70.6 and Slope 134)
- White Tee (Rating - 68.4 and Slope 129)
- Yellow Tee (not yet established)
- Red Tee (Rating - 69.8 and Slope 121)

New Features:

- New "Halfway House" featuring permanent bathrooms and food concession which is between 14 green and 15 tee.
- New senior tee markers (yellow) for every hole.
- New tee box for hole #13 to add about 20 yards.
- New Ladies and Senior tee box for hole #15.

Don't forget about our driving range.

The driving range offers serious golfers a place to warm up before the important round or a place to work on their swing. The three tiered t-Boxes, inline synthetic artificial turf which is marked from 100-250 yards provide an awesome alternative to the traditional ranges.

Traditions at the Glen Resort and Conference Center offers a unique setting for your Johnson City, NY golf outing. We can host large corporate tournaments or smaller, more informal family get-together's. Our large tent, located right beside the pro shop, is the perfect place to gather before and after the outing to talk about the game. Equipped with its own kitchen and restroom facilities, this large outdoor facility can accommodate up to 300 guests. Traditions at the Glen Golf Course and Resort is committed to helping you enjoy the golfing traditions you've come to love, while experiencing some great new ones.
